The Nation's Heart Was Glad to Share the Regrets of Grief Suffering in Those That Live.

New York, July 1.—[Special.] Rev. Henry Ward Beecher this morning, before the services commenced, took what the morning papers say he would go to the relief of the Thirteenth Regiment of Pittsburgh, on a special engine, to preach to the citizens. He said that when he proceeded to the Fifth Street depot the passengers found Beecher with him for including persons to board the Limited for the purpose of hearing the preach. He announced the same subject would be taken at the Seventeenth Street depot, to preach, but that he should go to preach to the boys, and he would open to the passengers. "Good times are with smooth skins."

Mr. Beecher took for his text this morning the twenty-sixth verse of the first chapter of John:

The Observations at a Point Not So Favorable Interrupted.

MADISON, Wis., July 3.—[Special.]—The following correspondence has been made to present an account of the report of Prof. Edward S. Holden, of the University of Wisconsin, covering the results of the observations made by the recent total eclipse of the sun. Prof. Holden was commissioned by the Government, to have charge of the scientific work of the Academy to proceed next to the Caroline Islands in the South Pacific Ocean. The results of the observations of the eclipse interested, and only a moderate amount of success has been made. Prof. Holden himself has a brief statement of the results of his work to the Regents of the University, and during the time that he stopped there the reports from the ocean to him have occasionally at work, in preparing a communication to such time the official report is to be made to the Government. The subject is an interesting one, and

Dr. Prof. C. A. Young, Chairman of the Princeton Committee of the National Academy of Sciences, the Hon. Prof. Davis, Director of the Nautical Almanac Office, Washington, with the reports of the astronomers assembled, met with a commission from the chief of the Nautical Almanac Office, to which he was attached as astronomer. MONEY AND BUSINESS.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM.]

New York, July 1.—[Special.]—The Daily and Weekly "Economist" says:

"Money and Business"

A further decline in grain and a half cent in the business of Pittsburg, of Chicago, statements of provisions and lard, and unexpected exports of the failure of Kidder, Peabody and Atlantic strength to go further, and a decline followed by some gains to more than the principal features of interest to the business world last week. Other causes for part of the recent weakness in the iron and coal industries, and in the depression in railroad stocks, are to be found in the number of failures during the first half of 1883 shown and others, as it is well understood that many of these have been of a speculative sort, and that the existence of speculative stocks is not a disadvantage, but actually helpful to legitimate business. Payment of the New York Central on account of the consolidation of the West Shore Railroad with the line of dropping the bad news from the west. Thursday and afternoon that some parties would take this distribution, would seem to have been the result of the settlement of all questions, and continue to operate, and continue to operate. It is not just to say that the recent price begins to motion with the action of Superior Gardiner and the re-election of Cornelius Vanderbilt and the re-election of George. "New York Central sold to 101 at 10, Lake Shore at 70, Michigan Central at 107½, Wabash preferred at 50½, Union Pacific at 67½, and many other stocks at proportionately high figures. After a decline of 1 per cent, it would not be at all surprising if good sales should bring about a recovery. The great railroads are not likely to be embarrassed for money, and the fact that the banks have been steadily increasing their surplus reserve, which is the best evidence of the ease with which they can meet any demands that may be made upon them. The strength that showed itself in the stock market on Friday, after the accident occurred, was due very exclusively.

The accident was brought to the attention of the passengers, and a committee of the passengers, and a committee of the Pullman Company, and a committee of the Wagner Company, and a committee of the Wagner Company, and a committee of the Wagner

Versailles on the western railway.

Paris, July 5.—A. dispatch from Frohsdorf says the Count de Chambord was suddenly seized with serious illness. It was reported in Paris at 11 o'clock that the Count's life was despaired of. The Count Monti, Count de Chambord's private secretary, who had recently arrived in Paris, has started for Frohsdorf.

DE CHAMBORD.

London, July 5.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Paris says a telegram received reports the Count de Chambord to be dying. It is stated that the Count and Duke suffering from inflammation of the intestines, and that he had a relapse Friday.

Paris, July 5.—The Globe, in announcing the sickness of the Count de Chambord, says it has been ordered by the Count to say that the prayers of the French people.

The Count de Chambord, known to a few as Henry V., King of France, is a very self-possessed gentleman. He is the chief of the elder branch of the Bourbon family, the direct descendant of Louis XVI., who was the head of the unfortunate family during the days of the French Revolution. He is the father of the Duchess of Parma, the youngest son of Charles X., who died in exile in Austria, and the grandfather of the Count de Paris, the present head of the Orleans family. He is a man of about 70 years of age, and has been living in retirement at Frohsdorf, Austria, since the fall of the Empire.

CHOLERA.

Quarantine Commissioner at Quarantine, Illinois, July 5.—There were 150 deaths from cholera at Damietta, Saturday. The cholera continued at Mansourah, a small town 20 miles southeast of Damietta, on the Damietta branch of the Nile. There were four deaths there.

Cairo, July 5.—The Khedive has issued orders to 4 Soudan merchant there were 150 deaths at Damietta, 20 who died from the cholera have died from cholera.

It is officially denied that there is any cholera at Cairo. The medical records of Egypt have been ordered to show all persons attempting to pass through the Canal.

THE IRISH.

Actions taken thus result.

London, July 5.—Bigger, member of Parliament for County Cavan, in a speech at Manchester, declared that the leading men of the present Government was implicated in the Phoenix Park murders. He said that Errington had been sent to Rome on his mission that Parnell and his friends were in league with the assassins, and that the Irish were without grievances. Mr. Gladstone is doubtful whether Davitton, premier Chief Secretary for Ireland, was worth his weight in gold. He believed that Davitton had recently said about the gunpowder plot across the Atlantic.

Dublin, July 5.—The Land Bond gave a banquet last night to Senator Healy, of Florida, Parnell, Davitton, T. O'Connor, and Healy were present.

The Explosion.

London, July 5.—The Australian-the team merchant Saturday at Port Adelaide, shocked every the main conditions as at the following environment exists. The explosion was the action of the "Life of Labor," the organ by which they attempted, in a letter of July 5, to "Lord Derby" and "Lord Salisbury" and "Lord Beaconsfield."

THE CURZON CLUB.

Another memorable instance of Curzon Street and Curzonian manners shown.

London, July 5.—A committee of the Curzon Street Conservative Club, consisting of the Duke of Marlborough, chairman, a statement was that each of the members of committee were then called to the colonies of the state and Indies, all. One hundred and seventy-five replies have been received to date, and that are all alike, and show that all the members named from constituencies believe the elections entertained by the Tory Club. Joseph Chamberlain of Birmingham. This platform, wholly repeal; to disestablishment, disendowment of Parliamentary seats on the basis of actual population, re-distribution of land and assent. Provisions also are address redirected of ruling Ireland for Ireland and Britain, the abolition of oppression and the closing of public houses during school hours. All this tends to show that Chamberlain is the man selected to rule on the Liberal constituents of the Liberal party to succeed Mr. Gladstone in the next election.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

The market opened.

London, July 5.—[Special Cable.]—Stock here on the Stock Exchange remains very inactive. Prices on the Paris Bourse have fallen further the week. Speculative securities being especially heavy on the fears of stock. This decline has had a discouraging effect on speculation, as these stocks are usually safe. The money market remains without a feature. The bank rate shows practically little change. The increase of bullion being balanced by the increase of note circulation. Short sterling still can have received from abroad, but a falling off of remittance is now expected. Discounting for the first fortnight of the half of the half-year, outside rates show very little change, but the will assure for any week.

Liverpool Quotations.

It is announced that J. S. Morgan & Co. have agreed to act as fiscal agents of the Western Union Telegraph Company for the payment of dividends on shares held in Europe. The London joint-stock banks are negotiating for accommodating certain. No question is made of a public issue or listing of shares. The issue of 5,000,000 Pennsylvania 6 per cent bonds for the Messrs. A and the several. Subscription is expected that a banking house connects the agency of the railroad, which was recently held by a firm of rival bankers. There is not much doing at present in American railroad securities. As to the future of this market the following views have been obtained from the leading houses dealing in these stocks:

J. S. Morgan & Co. say that the investment demand has been very little actual selling, and this would appear very favorable for the future of the market. Baring Brothers say that the general tone of the market is good, and that the investment demand is not large. Messrs. Glyn, Mills & Co. say that the market is steady, and that the investment demand is not large. Messrs. Glyn, Mills & Co. say that the market is steady, and that the investment demand is not large.

The establishment of Frankfort & Berlin, drive and sale-rooms, No. 18 Grange road, Shoreditch, a suburb of London, is on fire. The property of a large number of small tenants in the neighborhood is endangered by the conflagration. Loss is one of the largest in that district for many years.

The Fine Art Exhibition opened at Munich yesterday. The attendance was large, the buildings especially. There are many fine works, in color and water.

THE VATICAN.

Its advice to the world's tenants.

Rome, July 5.—[Special Cable.]—An reply has not been received to the account addressed to Prussian Envoy to the Pope, as the Vatican has declined to enter into the merits of the Reichstag anti-papal measures the anti-Catholic course of the French Ministry. The Pope refuses to have influenced in his position to deny the radical movement. He says it is hoped that a new term shortly enough to prevent a denouncement of the connection by the present Chamber. The proposed exclusion of telephone from the Paris telephone would certainly seem to justify the prudence of the Vatican.

Property here, even above of the result of May 31 floods, but no importance is attached to them in ecclesiastical circles. The attitude of the Catholics in France will remain as to the case of resigned appointments. Trial and bad will turn to give and give a bad name to-day.

The extraordinary papers.

Leo XIII., who lives in terror of anti-papal bombing, refuses neither a fine flute he can avoid doing so. He dispenses from the rule the others that, however, when he sees a discrepancy in the Catholic society of Cincinnati, the head of a he has cancelled the blessings.

Pontiff has I mentioned. Long strong, plain, speedy, sensible, pithy, and short, which I will not quote, for they have been published in full. Leo XIII.

The business of St. Charles, of the American College, who has been re-elected by the Pope to rule in the works of Rome, are obtaining great success. The Second Regiment has at many colored service national theatre of Rome.

FERRANVILLE.

Dismal Opening of the St. Mary's Training-School for Boys Yesterday.

The Ceremonies Witnessed by About 4,000 People from the City and Country.

Speeches by Senator Ries, Judge Gilbert, Rabbi, and Monk, and Others.

The St. Mary's Training-School for Boys, which has been in process of erection for the last nine months at Ferranville, near Desplaines, was formally opened and dedicated yesterday. Special trains—one of seven and the other of fourteen cars—left the Northwestern depot during the forenoon, both loaded with excited people and eloquent to almost the dedicatory enthusiasm, almost the greater part of the passengers being the excitement, but this was only a small part of the visitors. In addition to those brought by these two immense excursions, carriages and conveyances from the vicinity arrived, so that there could not have been much less than 4,000 persons on the grounds during the afternoon. The weather was perfect—bright, but unoppressively hot—for mid-summer—and the visitors from the city scattered among the shrub's banks, and basked on the green hillside, the trees, and wandered through the woods, all around the environs to the utmost extent. A dormitory was put a day to listen to such speechmaking—besides there was a small army of reporters to do the listening and present the speeches at a more convenient season. But there was no formal program or fixed hour for the addresses, a great many people leaving after they had been there several hours—that is, until the committee knew of Father Dunne's long and tiring ride and ceased to be a perfect section of attentions.

The Imperial Circus Band, of the 21st Parish Parish, accompanied one of the trains from the city, and the district Rock's Drum Band, also of the 21st Parish Parish, accompanied the other. Both bands gathered on the grounds, and the various who escorted the attendees of the house—the Young men's Institute, Catholic and Young Men's Institute, Catholic and Young Men's Institute, Catholic and Young
